

Her

Voting is local and evident in my
daily life.

I was raised in a
blue collar family
parents who didn't
attend college,
Although they weren't formally
educated, they
taught me the importance
about being a
responsible citizen.
Every election they would pack me and
my brother
in the car to go to polls
watch them
vote.

MY VOTE = MY VOICE, MY VALUES, MY HOPE

It makes me happy when
my polling location
is so busy
I have to wait
in line
to vote.

I vote to use my voice.

I
BECAUSE I am A STUDENT
AND I'VE LIVED
THROUGH
THIS SCHOOL
SHOOTING
CRAZINESS

DEAR GOD -
VOTE!

Because African Americans
died
for the right
to do so.

My first presidential election
was in 1968.
I was so proud
proud to vote!

i vote to Keep Choice!

I vote to be heard.

FOR my children

a privilege
responsibility,
a heritage
fought for
and won

I have taken my son
with me
every voting day -
primary → general since he was a newborn
in his car seat.

She just found
my
vote
can make a difference.
